

YOUR PERSONAL YEAR AHEAD • 01.01.–31.12.2027

YOUR YEAR 2027

WELCOME

Dear Miriam,

2027 has its own character, and it certainly won't feel the same for everyone. The planets follow the same paths for all of us, but they touch particular points in your birth chart on particular days. That's what this report is about: your 2027, calculated for your birth on 9 April 1988 in Hamburg.

Inside you'll find the year's main themes through Jupiter and Saturn, the most significant contacts between the slower planets and your chart, with exact dates, a month-by-month route through the year, retrogrades and your personal development through progressions. There are a few pages for your own notes at the end, too.

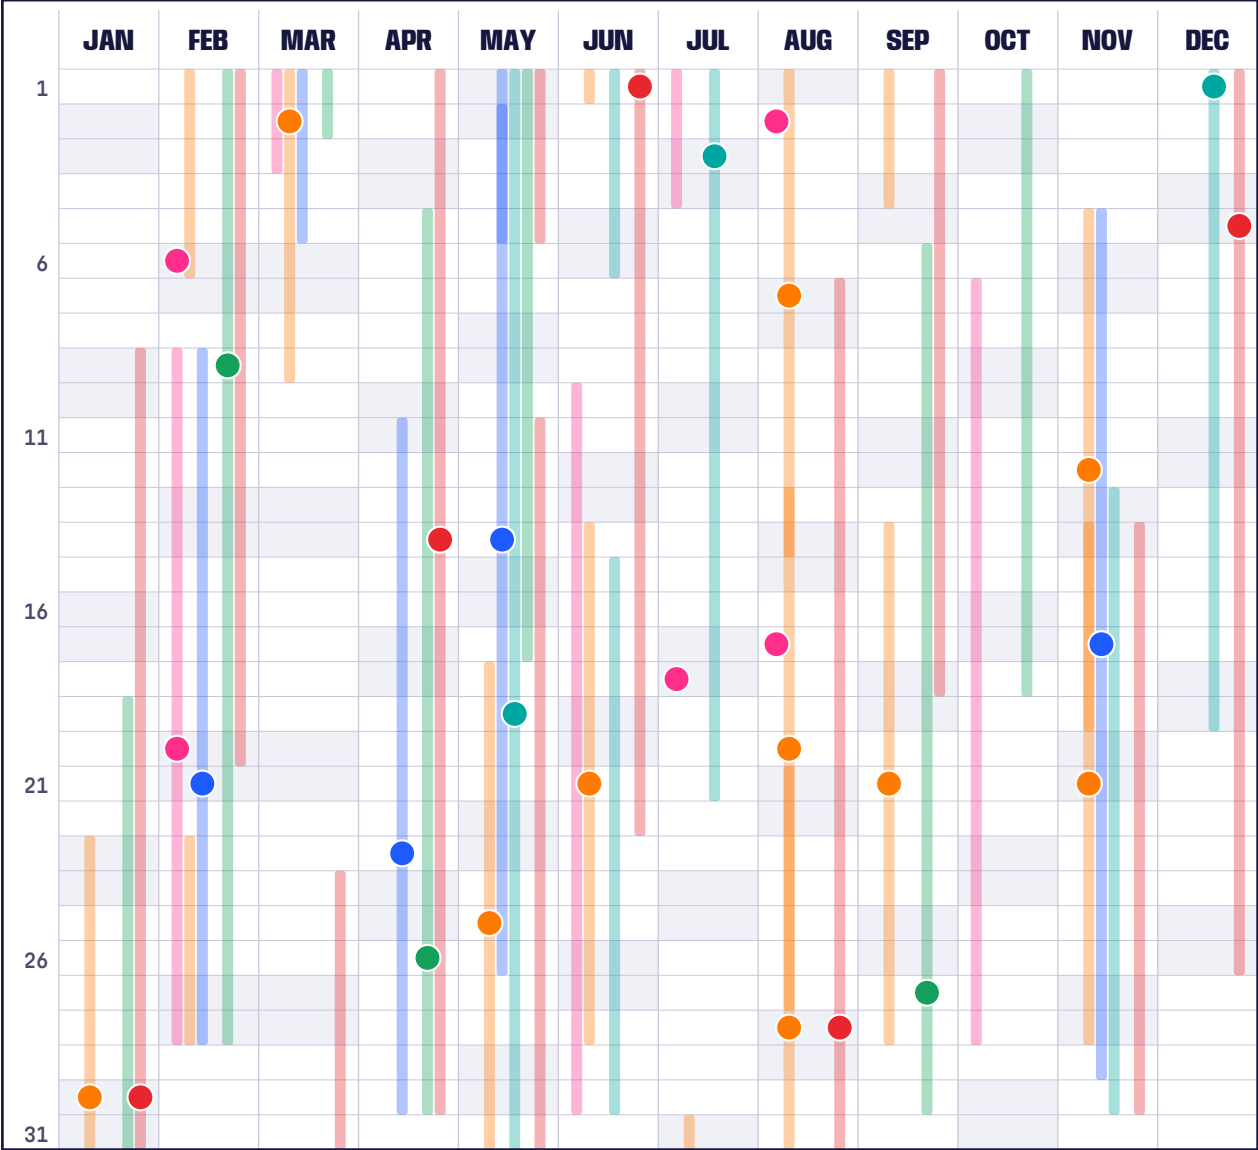

Astrology describes the weather, rather than a fixed destination. Read this report like a good walking map: it shows you the climbs, the viewpoints and the places where a rest might be wise. Where you go is up to you.

Warm wishes from Hamburg

Your chart at a glance

Sun in Aries: You express courage, directness and the spark to begin. This is the part of you that gets strengthened or challenged when planets touch your Sun in 2027.

Moon in Capricorn: To feel at home in yourself, you need structure, goals and self-determination. Make room for this in 2027, especially during the busier months.

Ascendant in Taurus: You come across as calm, warm and down to earth. Your ascendant also determines which areas of life (houses) the planets travel through in 2027.

Jupiter & Saturn: the climate of your year

Jupiter in Leo, your house 4 · from the start of the year

Home & family: Jupiter brings growth to your home, family and roots. Jupiter in the fourth house makes room at home: more space, family time, perhaps a move or a deeper feeling of being rooted.

Jupiter in Virgo, your house 5 · from 26 July

Love & creativity: Jupiter brings growth to romance, children, play and self-expression. Jupiter in the fifth house brings enjoyment: flirting, creativity, children and hobbies. You are allowed to have fun without earning it first.

The change on 26 July is one of your year's main turning points: the focus of opportunity moves from house 4 to house 5. Use the first half of the year to gather what has grown around Home & family, then make space for Love & creativity.

Saturn in Aries, your house 12

Retreat & inner life: Saturn asks for structure in rest, dreams, spirituality and the unconscious. Saturn in the twelfth house brings a time of completion: clear out the old, plan rest and attend to your inner life. One chapter ends so another can begin in 2028.

In the background: Uranus, Neptune & Pluto

Uranus in Gemini works through your house 2 (Money & values). Neptune in Aries works through your house 12 (Retreat & inner life). Pluto in Aquarius works through your house 10 (Work & reputation). These slower planets stay in one area for years. They colour the background of 2027, as climate shapes the seasons.

Your key transits in 2027

These are the slower planets' contacts with your chart, ranked by strength. A transit builds for several weeks before its exact date and gradually eases afterwards. If a planet turns retrograde along the way, the same theme can return up to three times. Apparently once isn't always enough.

Saturn meets your Sun

Exact: 23 April · active roughly from 31 March 2027 to 4 February 2028

This touches your core: vitality, confidence and what actually lights you up. Saturn asks whether you're living your own life. It can feel demanding, but what you sort out now will support you for years. A conjunction marks a beginning: the theme sits right in the middle of your life, clearly visible.

Try this: Give one goal a deadline and plan three concrete steps.

Saturn forms a square to your Moon

Exact: 21 February · active roughly from 26 January 2027 to 15 March 2027

This touches your emotional life: what nourishes you, where you feel at home and what helps you soften. Your feelings deserve to be taken seriously. You may need more quiet, clearer family boundaries or a reliable routine of your own. This aspect creates tension and a turning point. Friction shows where something wants to grow.

Try this: Drop one obligation that only drains you.

Saturn forms a square to your midheaven (MC)

Exact: 14 May, 17 November · active roughly from 24 April 2027 to 27 February 2028 · repeated passes (retrograde motion)

This touches work, vocation and the place you want to take in the world. A test of maturity at work: more responsibility, clearer goals, perhaps a deliberate change of direction. Success earned now tends to last. This aspect creates tension and a turning point. Friction shows where something wants to grow.

Try this: Drop one obligation that only drains you.

Uranus meets your Venus

Exact: 19 May · active throughout the year

This touches love, friendship, pleasure and money: what you value and draw towards you. You want something fresh in love and style. Unexpected encounters arrive, or you look for more freedom within relationships. A conjunction marks a beginning: the theme sits right in the middle of your life, clearly visible.

Try this: Try something completely new and leave room to be surprised.

Jupiter forms a square to your ascendant

Exact: 30 January, 21 June · active since late 2026, easing by about 5 July 2027 · repeated passes (retrograde motion)

This touches your presence and relationship with your body: how you meet life. You have more presence. Others find you more approachable: useful for fresh starts, travel or a change of style. This aspect creates tension and a turning point. Friction shows where something wants to grow.

Try this: Keep a sense of proportion: don't promise or spend too much.

Pluto forms a trine to your Venus

Exact: 30 January, 28 August, 5 December · active throughout the year · repeated passes (retrograde motion)

This touches love, friendship, pleasure and money: what you value and draw towards you. Love and values change. The superficial falls away; depth and real closeness remain. This is a harmonious aspect: the energy flows easily. Use it actively, or the opportunity may simply drift past.

Try this: Put your energy into a project you care about. The effects run deep and last.

Pluto forms a square to your natal Jupiter

Exact: 14 April, 1 June · noticeable from about 8 January 2027, continuing into 2028 · repeated passes (retrograde motion)

This touches your trust in life: meaning, growth and generosity. Your view of the world changes at its roots. Influence, success and responsibility may grow. This aspect creates tension and a turning point. Friction shows where something wants to grow.

Try this: Let go of control where it only soothes fear without giving you freedom.

Neptune forms a square to your natal Saturn

Exact: 9 February · active since late 2026, easing by about 20 February 2028

This touches your structures: duties, boundaries, goals and old fears. Firm plans become less clear. Let go of what has become pure obligation; keep what actually supports you. This aspect creates tension and a turning point. Friction shows where something wants to grow.

Try this: Put important things in writing and check them twice.

Retrograde planets in 2027

Retrograde means a planet appears to move backwards as seen from Earth. For you, it's an invitation to revisit that planet's themes rather than push ahead. The house shows where this is happening in your life.

Uranus: 10 September 2026 to 8 February 2027

From 5° Gemini back to 1° Gemini, in your house 2 (Money & values). Uranus retrograde: the wish for change matures inside before it becomes visible outside.

Jupiter: 13 December 2026 to 13 April 2027

From 27° Leo back to 16° Leo, in your house 4 (Home & family). Jupiter retrograde: growth happens inwardly. Check whether your plans still fit who you are.

Mars: 10 January 2027 to 1 April 2027

From 10° Virgo back to 20° Leo, in your house 5 (Love & creativity). Mars retrograde: energy turns inward. Rethink projects rather than force them, and work through conflict calmly.

Mercury: 9 February 2027 to 3 March 2027

From 5° Pisces back to 20° Aquarius, in your house 11 (Friends & future). Mercury retrograde: give communication, technology and appointments a little more care. A good time to revise, return to old projects and clear things up.

Pluto: 8 May 2027 to 18 October 2027

From 7° Aquarius back to 4° Aquarius, in your house 10 (Work & reputation). Pluto retrograde: deep inner change brings old issues to the surface so you can work through them.

Mercury: 10 June 2027 to 4 July 2027

From 6° Cancer back to 27° Gemini, in your house 3 (Communication). Mercury retrograde: give communication, technology and appointments a little more care. A good time to revise, return to old projects and clear things up.

Neptune: 9 July 2027 to 15 December 2027

From 6° Aries back to 3° Aries, in your house 12 (Retreat & inner life). Neptune retrograde: illusions begin to dissolve and clarity returns.

Saturn: 9 August 2027 to 24 December 2027

From 27° Aries back to 21° Aries, in your house 12 (Retreat & inner life). Saturn retrograde: review your structures and commitments, and make useful repairs.

Uranus: 15 September 2027 to 12 February 2028

From 9° Gemini back to 5° Gemini, in your house 2 (Money & values). Uranus retrograde: the wish for change matures inside before it becomes visible outside.

Mercury: 7 October 2027 to 28 October 2027

From 4° Scorpio back to 19° Libra, in your house 7 (Partnership). Mercury retrograde: give communication, technology and appointments a little more care. A good time to revise, return to old projects and clear things up.

Progressions & solar return

Transits describe the weather around you. Progressions trace your inner growth: one day after birth stands for one year of life.

Your progressed Moon in Gemini, moving in Cancer during the year

The progressed Moon spends about two and a half years in a sign and reflects what you need emotionally. In 2027 it moves from 22° Gemini to 5° Cancer. Right now, you need exchange, variety and conversation. As it changes sign, the emphasis shifts towards a warm home and familiar people.

Your progressed lunar phase: New moon

You are at the start of a new life cycle of roughly 30 years. Much is still a seed: allow something new to grow even before you have a clear name for it.

Progressed Sun in Taurus

Since your birth, your progressed Sun has reached 27° Taurus. This sign's qualities (steadiness, sensuality and reliability) are something you are learning to bring into your life at this stage.

Your solar return in 2027

On 9 April 2027 at 17:20, the Sun returns to its exact birth position: your astrological birthday and the start of your personal year. Take ten minutes that day to write down three wishes for the year ahead.

Your 2027 on paper

A report comes to life when you connect it with your own experience. Set aside a quiet evening each quarter.

January–March

What do I want to grow in 2027?

April–June

Where am I feeling friction, and what is it showing me?

July–September

What has changed since Jupiter moved into a new sign?

October–December

What am I taking forward, and what am I leaving in 2027?

How this report was made

This report starts with your birth details (9 April 1988, 07:45, Hamburg, 53.55° N / 9.99° E). Your birth chart, progressions, the planets' positions in 2027, transits and retrogrades are calculated astronomically, with each date cross-checked. New and full moons match astronomical tables to the minute.

We use the tropical zodiac and whole-sign houses. The report includes the major aspects (conjunction, sextile, square, trine and opposition) from Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune and Pluto, with narrow orbs of 2–3°.

You decide what to do with your year.
